

Escondido Invitational
Friday May 2, 2014
Escondido High School

January 31, 2014

Dear Coach:

It is my pleasure to invite you to the 2014 Escondido Track & Field Invitational. This year's meet will be held the evening of Friday May 2, 2014. New this year: In an attempt to provide more structure in the divisions category, all events will be seeded like the Invitational entries in the past. The meet will now shift from divisions to heats. There will be the Invitational category, Heat 1 and Heat 2. Athletes will be seeded in each heat depending on their performance marks. Enter all athletes into their events on athletic.net like you have done in the past for the Invite section. You will still be allowed to change athletes on meet day, but the races/events will not be reseeded. This year's meet will still accommodate 18 full teams and several partial teams for the invitational events. Priority will be given to teams that attended last year until March 1, 2014 and at that point it will be open to new teams. Please submit the enclosed information back to me to reserve your place. I will email you and confirm that I have received your information.

This is a night meet in an amazing new facility! The facility features 2 long and triple jump runways, 2 pole vault runways (south D zone), 2 shot put rings (north D zone), 2 discus rings in the north field (new rings), and a High Jump arena with 2 jump pits.

If you have any further questions please leave a message on my voice mail at (760) 291-4000 ex 4938 or Email: mihernandez@euhsd.net (email is best).

Sincerely,

Mirna Hernández
