Special Thanks:

To the Union Tribune Photo Department for all their help.

After a one-year hiatus, the San Diego High School Track and Field Record Book returns, thanks in a major way to long-time track fan and USD cross-country coach Richard Cota.

The 1994 book includes more marks and names than the previous two editions. Readers are constantly upgrading the all-time marks, compiled by Steve Brand, and the 1993 yearly list by Tom Shanahan is deeper than ever.

Also of interest is the CIF-San Diego Section record list.

There are two changes to that list even though the only official record set last year was in a new event, the girls' 100-meter hurdles race raised from 30" to 33". After the 1992 record book was distributed at the section championships, all-time mile leader Tim Danielson called to point out a discrepancy.

He accurately noted that there are several marks listed on the all-time list that are superior to the section records. That came about because under National Federation rules, in order for a mark to be considered for a section record it must have occurred in a meet in which four or more schools were competing. It must also be a high school-only meet prior to that state's championships.

Danielson, one of only three runners in the history of high school track and field to crack the four-minute mile barrier, ran 3:59.4 in an AAU championship meet. The next fastest mark, Thom Hunt's still-standing all-time indoor mile record of 4:02.7, was recorded in an pre-season meet in 1976. The fastest mile or 1,600 recorded under National Federation rules is the 4:05.5 mile run by El Cajon High's Terry Cotton in 1972, which converts to a 4:04.04 for 1,600 meters.

Likewise, the 1:49.2 880 by Madison's Bob Hose and 1:50.4 by Hilltop's Terry Rodgers came in post-season meets. The fastest half-mile under National Federation guidelines would be the 1:50.25 run by Mount Miguel's Mark Senior en route to winning the state championship in 1988.

Danielson's honesty cost him a spot in the section record book but he remains San Diego's — and one of the nation's — all-time best milers.

NOTE: All section records must meet National Federation guidelines.

While at Southwest High in 1992, Riley Washington set the state 100-meter dash record, winning the event in 10.30 seconds. His mark also eclipsed the section record of 10.45 by El Camino's Darron Norris in 1984.

Kearny's Darnay Scott is pulling away from opponents on the football field these days but in high school he was just as overpowering on the track, finishing second in the state 200 at 21.23.

Dave Loshonkohl was an excellent discus thrower and shot putter for Granite Hills High but he really found his niche last year at San Diego Mesa College, shattering the state hammer throw record.

Former Male Track Athlete of the Year Brion Noon of Fallbrook didn't take long to establish himself at the University of Georgia. The state record-holder, with a best of 76 feet, 2-inches, is No. 2 all-time in the nation.

This year's national steeplechase champion, Marc Davis, could do it all while attending San Diego High in 1987. Davis was the Kinney National cross country champ in 1986 and section mile titlist in 1987 despite running on a severely sprained ankle.

Jerome Price came ever so close to the section long jump record, but came up a quarter-inch short when he reached 25-feet, 5-inches in 1989. He won the state title that year as well.

San Pasqual's Erin Blunt adjusted quickly to the higher college hurdles at UCLA in 1993 after a sensational high school career that included one state and five section titles.

Mebrahtom Keflezighi, a junior at San Diego High, earned Male Athlete of the Year honors when he finished second in the state 3,200 and third in the 1,600, barely missing the school record in the latter event by just 12-hundredths of a second.
